25X1 15. [] LIAISON Notified Margaret McKenna, Deputy Counsel to the President, of our rescheduling of a follow-up briefing on the Dresser case by OER analysts with Peter Sullivan, staff member of the Senate Government Affairs Subcommittee on Permanent Investigations. I explained that this was a follow-up to our briefing of last week. I assured her that we have not commented on the merits of issuing the license to Dresser since our role is advisory. McKenna appreciated our position and said the White House did not want to prejudice our relationship with Subcommittee Chairman Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.). She will discuss this further with Mr. Frank Moore, Assistant to the President for Congressional Liaison, and call back if the Agency should cancel the briefing. She did not call back. Later in the day, the office of Mr. Homer Moyer, Deputy General Counsel, Department of Commerce, called and requested the names of the Agency representatives that briefed the Subcommittee staff last week on the Dresser case and a run-down of the topics discussed. Moyer prepared an over-all memorandum covering all executive agencies that briefed the Subcommittee staff which was to be presented to the President tonight.
